Hi Lorelyn.

Can you provide me with additional information about the activities undertaken by the Tribe and what future activities are planned. This will help us better assess next steps. I am copying Richard Sisk and Cinna Vallejos on this email. Richard is the attorney working on the Upper Animas matter and Cinna works with our Superfund program.

I will be out of the office tomorrow and will not be back until August 24.

Subject: Reimbursement for Response Services

Hi Andrea,

Thanks for the phone call. At your earliest convenience, could you please provide information regarding reimbursement to the Southern Ute Indian Tribe for response services related to the Gold King Mine spill? As I noted, the Animas River bisects the western half of the Reservation, and the Tribe's Incident Management Team and other tribal staff have been heavily engaged in response efforts, including, among other things, delivering water to tribal members who live along the River and conducting water sampling for an expanded list of analytes.

Thank you,

Lorelyn
